AQUEDUCT'S PECULIARITIES.

A well known Chicagoan who "took in" the recent meeting at Aqueduct writes to DAILY RACING FORM as follows concerning the track, its management and its distinguishing features: To the racing public of the west and south a description of the track, etc., may be of interest.

Aqueduct is reached in forty minutes from Broadway by way of the Thirty-fourth street horse cars, the ferry and the Long Island railroad. The trip over and back costs fifty cents. The train runs alongside the enclosure and one strikes the course just opposite the first turn. To the left is the grandstand, club-house and betting ring; to the right the paddock. The buildings are new and in good order. The grandstand proper will seat not more than 1,200 persons, and is a single decker, well raised, however, for the purpose of supplying space underneath for the sample and refreshment rooms. Opposite the last sixteenth post a stand has been built to accommodate such patrons as may be caught in the betting ring and this with the member's stand and club-house verandas will bring the seating capacity of Aqueduct up to 2,500. In front of the grandstand is a raised board "lawn" the inclines of which allow a good view of all parts of the course. The track itself is sandy and much too narrow. The turns are altogether too sharp.

All about are cinder paths, suggesting dry feet in wet weather.

The marker of the bulletin board got his education from tea boxes and the deciphering of his hieroglyphics is productive of profanity.

Aqueduct is said to be a better dividend paying track than any of the others around New York city.

Monday, the opening day there, drew in twenty-six regular bookmakers and some forty others. The pencilers pay no money to the association, but the big books each buy some $300 or $70 worth of admission tickets ($1.50 for "gents" and $1.00 for ladies, as per the sign at the box office at the gate), while class No. 1 on the dead line invest $25 each similarly, this amount shrinking to $15 for class No. 2. The difference in these classes consists in the fact of the first sitting on stools, the others standing up.

What is most impressive to a stranger familiar with the outeries and bustle common to all western and southern tracks is the absolute quiet, not only during the betting on the race, but when the horses are finishing.

Eddie Burke, who had backed L'Alouette from 15 to 1 down to 4 to 1 for the first race, was standing within a few yards of the wire as the filly was finishing with Tyrian. "She's beaten," said Burke, and walked into the betting ring. Every one supposed that Tyrian had won until the numbers went up—that of L'Alouette on top—yet there was no outcry, and holders of Tyrian tickets quietly remarked, "It must have been mighty close." Tyrian had come in the final eighth hard held, the winner under the whip. So with the finish between Maximo Gomez and Tyr Shena in the last race of that day. The poor starting by C. H. Pettingill deserved censure, yet the only comment was, "the fields are large."

A splendid innovation is the barring of vendors of "Jack's tips, stable boys," etc. from all approaches, and at the ferry, on the train, and at the track gate this nuisance was absent. If there were any touts they did their work very quietly, and in the betting ring was never heard "I'll bet you a hundred" of the grandstand bookmaker. All this is quite in line with the refinement shown by eastern sporting men: in fact, a westerner imbibes a habit of stillness before he lives long in Gotham. The Jockey

Board is left intact until the horses are at the post: there is a jockey board in the betting ring, and on the bulletin board are posted the jockeys for the next race.

The betting ring is entirely too small, it not being as large as the one at Lakeside, and the crush around the big bookmakers is appalling. Stable accommodations are said to be none too good, but excellent water is supplied by two windmills. Newspaper boys are allowed to work inside the track gates.

To scratch a horse costs nothing, the owner paying an entrance fee and suffering no further tax. A horse may be scratched up to the time to weigh out. W. O. Scully said: "The above is an excellent rule. Anywhere but in the east one is forced to scratch at 10 o'clock. Suppose the morning to be bright. A man naturally stays in. Then a storm comes up and he is forced to start a dry track horse and, with no chance of winning the race, knocks out his animal perhaps for the season."

The number of starters is limited and arbitrarily settled by the several track officials to suit the peculiarities of the course. For instance, at Aqueduct purse races at short distances can only be contested by twelve starters, where at seven-eighths mile twenty-one are allowed. The twelve starters are the ones first drawn from the entry box, and in the event of there being more entries such appear on the program as eligibles in the event of the scratching of any of the twelve. Of course there is a chance for an owner having a poor horse to scratch and allow another to start in his place, but no fault can be found with this as good material is the desideratum. Monday, the opening day, three of the "additional" entries won races in L'Alouette, Duke of Middleburg and Gaze.

Tony Licalzi was present, as "fat as a seal," and "Jimmie" McCormick, just from West Baden, looked like a two-year-old. The first had at Aqueduct Donna Rita, Al Fresco and Lady Ellerslie. On the last-named filly he admits having won at her first start this year more money than he ever gathered at any one time, the owner having "down" $1,200, most of it at 10 to 1.

Around the betting ring were seen Walbaum, "Duke of Guttenberg," Joe Ullman, George Wheelock, Eddie Burke, Lucien Appleby, Jack McDonald, Mattie Corbett, "Circular Joe," Dink Davis, George Randall, Joe Caspar, "Pittsburg Billy" Martin, Joe Cotton, "Eole" Pearsoll, Mike Dwyer, "Colonel Wise" Pulsifer, "Cad" Irish, "the Brooklyn handicapper," "Cliff" Doherty, Tom Sheedy, Sam Austin and Richard Roche.

Willie Martin said, coming home on the ferry: "King Barleycorn does not like to be hustled along the first part of it. In a longer race he will do better."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The entry of Volandies will hereafter be refused at Newport, and the poor cripple will not be allowed to burn up any more of the public's money. He started a few days ago and was heavily backed. He was so sore that he could hardly put his feet to the ground, and ran a poor race, finishing a bad fifth in a field of eight. Yesterday the judges sent for his trainer and asked him as to the horse's condition, saying that if he was in as bad shape as at the time of his last start they would not allow him to start. He assured them that the horse was fit and in good condition and in good racing fettle. He said that the horse suffered from rheumatism, but would warm out of it in his race. If anything he was in worse condition yesterday than on the previous occasion, and, by the way, was an equal favorite with Albert S. His sorry plight was plainly apparent as he went to the post. He finished a poor seventh in a field of eight."

Late Australian newspapers received by the San Francisco Chronicle give particulars of the big Sydney meeting: "Sixteen thousand people saw Diffidence win the Sydney cup at two miles. She is a three-year-old filly and carried 93 pounds. The remarkable feature about the win of Diffidence is that she is no bigger than a pony. Clarion, by Carbine, finished second. There were twenty-three starters, and Diffidence won easily by six lengths in 3:31. Stromboli won this race in 1892 and Darebin in 1893. Diffidence is by Pilgrim's Progress, a son of Isonomy, dam Extra Weenie, by Trenton, a son of Musket."

"Vigorous captured the Doncaster handicap at one mile, with 103 pounds up. He is a three-year-old by Abercorn, a son of Chester, the sire of Stromboli. Hopscotch, 123, by Grand Flaneur, finished second."

"Bodahil went down to defeat in the St. Leger at one and three-quarter miles. Johansen, a despised outsider, by Nordenfeldt, won. Bodahil and Lee Metford ran a dead heat for the place."

"Dewey, by Lochiel, captured the two-year-old maiden stake after a battle royal with Sirdar. The Queensland horse Merloulas captured three stakes at the meeting, including the Australian Jockey Club plate, with 126 pounds in the saddle. In the latter event, Lee Metford, by Carbine, finished second and Clarion, by Carbine, third. The three miles were run in the excellent time of 5:31."

The dates set for the running of the Saratoga stakes are as follows:

July 26—Congress Hall.
July 27—Madden.
July 29—McGrathiana.
August 1—Fleischmann.
August 2—Hendrie.
August 3—Kearney.
August 5—Grand Union (first part).
August 7—Worden House.
August 8—United States.
August 10—Lemp.
August 12—Saratoga Prize.
August 15—Kensington Hurdle.
August 17—Mumm.
August 19—Citizens.
August 22—Grand Union (second part).
August 24—Pepper.
August 25—Spencer Handicap and Beverwyck Steeplechase.

Enoch Wishard, the clever trainer who handles a stable of horses racing under the firm name of Duke & Wishard, has twice visited the English racing circuit and met with success on both occasions. He is now seriously considering a proposal made by his partner, William Duke, which involves another trip across the ocean this summer.

Mr. Wishard, when seen, would not say positively that he intended shipping the best of his racing material direct from here to England.

"I expect to visit that country this fall," said he, "and I may decide to leave earlier. I may ship to Mr. Duke's farm at Westville, N. Y., and rest the horses there prior to taking the long trip across the ocean. My plans at present are a little uncertain."

"If you go to England will you take Johnny Reiff?" he was asked.

"Certainly. Johnny" and his brother Lester will remain with me wherever I decide to go."

The last time Wishard visited England he sold all his racers at public auction before returning to this country. The sale was a great success.—San Francisco Examiner.

READY AT LAKESIDE.

The local racing season will be inaugurated at Lakeside this afternoon. Needed repairs to stands, stables, fences and walks have been actively prosecuted since it was decided to race, and visitors will find the Indiana track and its appointments in good order.

A number of horses came in Tuesday, among them the string of James O. Gray, that included Alice Farley, Old Saugus and two well-bred two-year-olds, Olive Order and Auld Lang Syne. Alice Farley will be a valuable addition to the racing material at the Lakeside track. This filly swept everything before her on the Canadian circuit last summer and was a stake winner at Saratoga and on the metropolitan tracks; in fact, she was one of the best three-year-old fillies in the country. It will be the first time for some years that Gray has raced in Chicago and he must have something good in his stable or he would not have deserted the Northern Circuit to race against a higher class of horses.

Tony Licalzi's horses, Lady Ellerslie, Al Fresco, Donna Rita, and Hop Scotch, which have been racing at Benning and Aqueduct, arrived Tuesday morning. They are in good condition and will be ready to go to the post as soon as they are rested from their journey. W. R. Griffin also reached the track with his filly, Miss Ross, and two two-year-olds.

Secretary Nathanson has posted a bulletin calling attention to certain special track rules which will be enforced at Lakeside and Harlem this year. One of them refers to the colors carried by jockeys and is as follows:

"Owners will be held strictly responsible for failures to carry colors exactly as registered. For every violation of the rule a fine will be imposed and collected. No excuse will be tolerated."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Knight of the Thistle, b. h. six years old, by Rosebery—The Empress Maud, winner of the $15,000 Kempton Park Great Jubilee Stakes last Saturday, is the property of Mr. L. O. Appleby of this city and proprietor of the Ellerslie Stud Farm, Little Silver, N. J. Knight of the Thistle is trained by John Huggins, for many years in charge of Mr. Pierre Lorillard's stable, and will run in the colors of Lord William Beresford during his turf career, after which he will take his place at the head of Mr. Appleby's farm.—New York Herald.

Ed Corrigan intends to ship six of his best horses east after the meeting closes here. The balance of his big stable of racers will be turned out on his Sacramento farm until next fall. Following is the list of those to be shipped across the Rockies: Adolph Spreckels, Winifred, Golden Rule, Sardine, St. Anthony and Basseda.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Coney Island Jockey Club has announced the following declarations from the Suburban Handicap, which will be run Saturday, June 17: Scottish Chieftain, Voter, George Boyd, Whistling Con, Lambent, Miss Marion and Boney Boy.

Manuel has gone lame and been shipped east for a let-up. It is to be hoped this sterling colt will recover and be able to return to the track a sound horse before the big fall stakes come up for decision.

The first of the produce of Buck Massie is owned by Papinta, the dancer. The mare Fusil full sister to Horton, is the dam of this foal, which is a very small filly but handsome and racy looking.

B. Nelson, Chicago. It was Rio Glenn that ran in the fourth race at Oakland and not Red Glenn, as printed.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The noted Australian stallion Tarcoola will be brought to California next August. An effort will be made to sell him to some of the large breeders. If it suits him Marcus Daly has promised to offer a liberal sum for him.
Tarcoola won $80,000 in stakes on the turf. He won the Melbourne Cup, Williamstown Cup, V.
R. C. Handicap, Queen's Birthday Handicap
and was second in the Geelong Cup. Carnage, who was sold recently to the Russian government for $73,000, finished second to Tarcoola in the Melbourne Cup. He defeated Portsea, who held the three-mile record for several years.
Tarcoola is by Newminster, son of the Marquis, winner of the St. Leger and the 200 guineas, and out of Imogene, by King of the Ring. In Tar-coola there is a double cross of Stockwell blood.
—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

Prince Poniatowski has eight foals by Magnet and six more to come. The sucklings are said to bear a close resemblance to the sire. They are all out of first-class mares. It is given out that the Prince will be armed with a small select stable when the season opens next fall.
He is now negotiating for a trainer.

Winner—B. c. by Florist—Addie Warren.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won handily. Warrenton liked the down hill course and won pretty much as he pleased. Blarneystone had plentiful speed but weakened in the last furlong. L'Alouette closed very strong and gamely. She is improving with each race. Nautch Girl found the company too good for her. She has never beaten a good field yet and was a false favorite. Caesarian raced poorly. His bad legs probably hurt. He is good. Klepper ran a bad race. The others had little chance. Watch Hanwell on a heavy track. He is ready.
Scratched—11784 Kingdon, 125. (11650) Maid of Erin, 116.
Warrenton, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Blarneystone, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. L'Alouette, show, evens. Caesarian, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Nautch Girl, place, 1 to 2; show, cut.

Time, 1:26, 24½, 37, 49½.

Winner—Ch. f. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly. Dear Heart was the best of a rather ordinary lot of youngsters. Maharajah and Decimal had a hard fight for the place. Decimal is probably the better of the two. Mattie Bazar came fast at the end. Mrs. C. ran a bad race. Magic Light and Cariboo should do better.
Scratched—11741 McMeekin, 108; Tristan Belle, 98; (11619) Lottie Sheville, 96; Allowance, 104.
Overweights—Maharajah, 3 pounds.
Dear Heart, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Maharajah, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Decimal, show, 4 to 1. Fleeting Moment, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Blk. c. by Himyar—Lady Agnes.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily. Kitchener is a fast colt and was easily best. Fluke is better than fair and closed fast and gamely at the end. Prince of Melbourne ran as if short. The Morris pair had no chance near enough speed. Petruchio was kicked at the post. Dr. Riddle has a bad knee and could not negotiate the hill. He got an easy race. Rubellite should do better. He was probably short from the way he stopped.
Scratched—11806 Mrs. C., 102; 11743 Mischievous, 102; 11743 Maribert, 97; Tristan Belle, 96.
Overweights—Dr. Riddle, 5 pounds; Prince of Melbourne, 1.
Kitchener, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Fluke, place, 15 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Dr. Riddle, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Prince of Melbourne, show, 8 to 5. Morris entry, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 13, 24½, 36½, 49½, 1:15½, 1:28½.

Winner—B. f. by Rey del Rey—Mortar.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Sky Scrapper had the foot of the party. She's a useful filly under light weight and very fit. Maid of Erin was tiptoed all the way. Rose O'Lee will be likely to win from this kind soon. Bardella is not ready. Caoutchouc quit badly after showing early speed.
Scratched—11805 Nautch Girl, 113.
Overweights—Prosaic, 4 pounds.
Sky Scrapper, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Saccharine place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Rose O'Lee, show, 7 to 5. Maid of Erin, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Caoutchouc, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 13, 24½, 36½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:15½.

Winner—Ch. c. by Tyrant—Shena Van.
Post 2 minutes. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. Tyr Shena was easily best as weighted and won as he pleased. He is a useful colt but liable to bleed. Bettie Gray is fast but the distance may have been a little too far for her. Miss Patron will do better. She ran a fair race. Knight of the Garter appears to be of no account at present. Wolhurst is a sorry cripple not to be depended on.
Scratched—11648 Sweet Caporal, 104; (11681) Holden, 99; 11782 Holland, 85.
Overweights—Islington, 5 pounds.

Winner—Br. g. by Martenhurst—Wanda III.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won pulling up. It was no more than a strong gallop for Challenger. He is very fit and good. Moslem was far the best of the others. Waltzer ran as if hardly ready. The others are bad jumpers. Komurasaki wants schooling.
Scratched—11744 Cock Robin, 147.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.
The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

Daily Racing Form in San Francisco.
Readers of DAILY RACING FORM in San Francisco can get the paper regularly from Foster & Orear, Ferry Building, foot of Market Street.

Winner—B. f. by Morello—Picnic.
Start fair. Won driving. Recreation is improving but is not at her best. Her race was a fair one but with a better rider up February would have won. Montallade closed like a wild horse through the stretch. Bernardillo ran a fair race. A longer route suits him best. Lost Girl and Amasa ran bad races. Etta H. was unlucky and poorly ridden.

Scratched—116733 Defender III, 110; 117623 Ringmaster, 110; 11803 Ricardo, 110; 116143 Flora Hawk, 108; 117572 Formella, 105; 117152 Judge Stouffer, 110.

Winner—B. m. by Racine—Aurelia II.
Start good. Won cleverly. Sly is in good form and was lucky and best ridden. Wyoming was the best horse and should have won, but his rider was of no help to him. Benamela ran a good race, closing fast at the end. Socialist was worn out in pacemaking. Imperious quit in stretch. Castake was unlucky.

Scratched—11676 Hobenzollern, 114; 11761 Roadrunner, 112; (10351) Elidada, 112; 117793 Horatio, 112; 11715 Pongo, 110; 116913 Inverary II, 109; 117172 Personne, 109; 11617 Hardy, 107; (11761) Opponent, 107; 11737 Moccirito, 105.

Winner—B. c. by Duncombe—Orange Leaf.
Start fair. Won driving. Under a good ride Whaleback finished very fast and won in the last stride. Jennie Reid ran her usual honest race. Rey Hooker was very badly ridden and may have been best. The Fretter and Festoso did not run to the mark. Yaruba was exhausted in pacemaking. Con Dalton showed some speed but quit in the stretch.

Scratched—117193 Lime Water, 112; 11673 Gold Fin, 110; Flamula, 107; 11674 Oraibee, 107; 11656 Victora, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by Joe Hooker—Addie O'Neill.
Start straggling. Won driving hard. Major Hooker finished stoutly and ran a good race. He is a stayer and in good form. Einstein was made too much use of. With judicious handling he would have won. Ledaea is a promising filly and ran a good race. Sardonio showed some improvement. She has not recovered from her four mile race yet. Dr. Bernays is sore and out of form. Dare II. ran a very bad race.

Scratched—116962 Durwad, 80; *7944 Myron, 80. *First series.
